

Urgent Nephrology Telemedicine Referral Guide

Steps

1. Call MARS Line (304-598-6000) and ask to speak to the Nephrologist on call
2. Once on the phone, provide reason for consult, the medical context of the patient and questions you want answered to determine if Telemedicine is appropriate
3. Determine what device will be used to make connection (i.e. WVU Hardware or WVU Mobile Device)
4. Have patient sign MDTV Telemedicine Consent Form
5. Present Patient
6. Forward all requested documentation to WVU & Assigned Telemedicine Coordinator for processing to the contacts listed below.

Prior to the consult please have the following information available

- Lab results
- Vital Signs including weight and input and output of fluid

At the time of the consult please have the following information available

- Hospital Face Sheet (Required)
- Reason for hospitalization
- Reason for consult
- List of current Medications & Allergies
- Admission H&P and other consult reports
- Laboratory reports since admission (Required)
- Signed MDTV Telemedicine Consent Form (Required)

Presenter Duration Requirements

Hospitalist / Physician	Full Duration
-------------------------	---------------

After Consult is Complete- Presenting Site Sends Documentation to BOTH: (Required)

Janet Boord Fax: 304.293.7373 Phone: 304.293.2551 Email: jaboord@hsc.wvu.edu	Telemedicine Coordinator Fax: Phone: Email:
--	--