Clark K. Sleeth Department of Family Medicine Faculty Biography

Dr. Karen Fitzpatrick
Associate Professor

Dr. Karen Fitzpatrick graduated from WVU School of Medicine in 1983. Karen graduated from our Family Medicine residency program in 1986. After eight years in a private practice Dr. Fitzpatrick returned to the Clark K. Sleeth Family Medicine clinic where she joined our faculty in 1994. Dr. Fitzpatrick is interested in Chronic Disease Management (The Chronic Care Model), Diabetes, Evidence Based Medicine, Homeless outreach and care of the medically underserved. She is the volunteer medical director for Milan Puskar Health Right.

To balance her career and personal life, Dr. Fitzpatrick and her husband David enjoy camping, cooking, baking, reading and jogging.
