HAVE YOU CONSIDERED WORKING IN THE OPERATING ROOM?

PREPARE FOR YOUR CAREER IN PERIOPERATIVE NURSING AT WEST VIRGINIA'S ONLY MAGNET HOSPITAL!

West Virginia University Hospitals, Ruby Memorial, a progressive teaching hospital / Level I Trauma Center offers exciting employment opportunities for nursing students to join our Operating Room team as a Surgical Tech Extern for the Summer 2008.

The Surgical Tech Extern provides intraoperative care to selected patients by assisting the surgical team during procedures. Specialized training is provided in a three-week orientation course.

While working along side the regions most skilled operating room staff, you will have the opportunity to learn first hand the skills and techniques used during surgical procedures. Gain knowledge in surgical instrumentation, surgical procedures, and become an expert in aseptic technique.

If you thrive in a fast pace learning environment, enjoy working as part of a high functioning team, and like a one to one patient ratio, consider joining our perioperative team.

Surgical Tech Externs work 40-hours per week, Monday thru Friday, for a commitment beginning May 19.

Rate of pay is $10/hour for a commitment of 40-hours per week beginning May 19, 2008.

Qualifications:

BSN degree candidates must show evidence of successfully completing their junior year prior to start date. Associate degree candidates must show evidence of successfully completing their first year of the nursing program prior to start da
