Intellectual Property in Education

Following this knowledge-based program, participants should be able to:

- Demonstrate ways in which course leaders can incorporate entrepreneurship into their course material.
- Describe the benefits of creating an entrepreneurial ecosystem of students and student researchers.
- Identify ways to expand course material into manuals or scalable material for wider distribution.
- Explain ways for a course instructor to encourage innovation in education and research.

Erienne Olesh, PhD
Associate Director
WVU Health Sciences Innovation Center
West Virginia University
Morgantown, WV

Wednesday, March 13, 2019
12:00 Noon to 1:00 PM
Teaching Scholars Program Conference Room, 2256 HSS
Seating is limited!

There are no fees associated with this presentation.

Disclosure
It has been determined that the content of this activity is not related to any products or services of any commercial interests, therefore, no evidence was gathered related to faculty / authors / planners’ relationships with commercial interests.